

Eleanor Monogram Chain Necklace: A timeless treasure, the Eleanor Monogram Chain Necklace is subtle yet striking. Crafted from high-quality, luxurious gold, this necklace is durably designed to withstand elements and the test of time without tarnishing. The Eleanor features a monogram pendant that can be customized with your initials or those of a loved one, making it a stunning and sentimental keepsake.

Gemma Sneakers: Your search for your go-to pair of sneakers is over—look no further! These suede and nylon tennies are as comfy as your favorite slippers, without sacrificing style. Wear them with everything from trousers to sundresses—these trainers complement any ensemble. Your closet (and your feet, tbh) will thank you for these!

Haven Jeweled Hoops: Adorned with a vibrant array of colorful stones, this four-pack of huggie hoops features a rainbow of hues to complement any outfit. Made from 14k gold-plated brass, they're designed for long-term wear without turning your skin that dreaded shade of green. Add the Haven Jeweled Hoops to your earring stack or wear them solo—either way, these beauties will ensure you sparkle.

Jenna Quilted Sling Bag: Whether you're heading out for a quick coffee run or embarking on a spontaneous adventure, this bag's got your back—literally. Need a spot for your phone? Done. Keys? Got it. That random snack you always carry "just in case"? Of course! With its interior and exterior pockets and built-in wallet, the Jenna Quilted Sling Bag is a master at organizing all your essentials. One less thing to worry about when you're on the go!

Maddie Woven Handbag: It's a clutch! It's a crossbody! It's the Maddie Woven Handbag, AKA your new sidekick. This multihyphenate features an adjustable, removable strap to seamlessly transform from a festival-ready crossbody to an evening-on-the-town clutch. Crafted from our patented, ultra-soft vegan leather, this convertible bag was designed to easily fit your phone, wallet, and other mini essentials and keep them secure with a zippered opening.
